

How to find Barking Hospital

Barking Hospital, Upney Lane, Barking, Essex IG11 9LX

Map not to scale

By road

From the A406 take the exit for Barking (last exit before A13) and follow London Road through the town centre to Longbridge Road. At Faircross Parade shops turn right at the traffic lights into Upney Lane - the hospital is 3/4 mile down on the right.

Barking Hospital is located in East London adjacent to Upney Tube Station and close to both the A406 North Circular Road and the A13. This is a mobile unit in the car park and is not based in the Walk in centre.

By bus

Number 62 bus stops outside the hospital.

By rail

The nearest National Rail train station is Barking, then catch the 62 bus to Upney Lane. The nearest tube station is Upney, which is on the District line. When leaving the station turn left into Upney Lane where Barking Hospital is located on the left.
